

Monthly disposable toric lenses

These lenses are used to correct astigmatism along with any short or long sightedness.

There is a huge range of powers in this type of lens so they will always have to be ordered for the individual patient.

Prices for these including solutions for three months start from €99.00 again varying with lens type and supplier.